

Photography Contest

FIRST PLACE
Bittersweet Winter
by Rebecca Carter

Rebecca Carter, 18, is a freshman at Cornell College in Mount Vernon, IA, where she is majoring in music and science with plans to attend medical school. Her hobbies include reading, photography, and all things music-related. She plays many instruments, including the pipe organ.

---

THANK YOU TO ALL

who entered our third annual Creative Minds Photography Contest! We'd like to thank our colleagues at CTY—Shelly Jefferson, Charles Beckman, and Dave Hoffer—who helped us select the winners. Visit our website at <http://cty.jhu.edu/imagine/creativemindscontest/contestresults.html> to see the photographs that received Honorable Mentions.

We are now accepting entries for our Creative Minds Essay Contest, so get writing! Winners will be announced in the January/February 2010 issue of Imagine. Read the rules and enter online at www.cty.jhu.edu/imagine.

---

SECOND PLACE Last Visit by Miriam Mogilevsky

Miriam Mogilevsky, 18, is a freshman at Northwestern University, where she is studying journalism and sociology. She writes for New Voices magazine.

Miriam enjoys playing in the marching band, reading, and exploring Chicago.

THIRD PLACE Watercolors by Alyssa Neelley

Alyssa Neelley is a 15-year-old sophomore at Sierra Canyon High School in Chatsworth, CA. She has been interested in photography for years. Recently, one of her photos of the Golden Gate Bridge was chosen for the eighth edition of the Schmap

San Francisco Guide. Her other interests include music and swimming.

